

Royal Court

A solid blush strain of Cortland discovered in Waterville, Nova Scotia, Royal Court is a whole limb sport of the popular McIntosh-Ben Davis cross. It bears deeper red color blushed with mahogany. The skin color is a dynamic contrast to the white, crisp flesh and grows on a vigorous, hardy tree.