

Czech Horseradish

A west coast variety that does well throughout the midwest. This variety has a very attractive top reaching two foot or more. It's productive with a nice white interior. We have had favorable reports from commercial growers.