

Mary Washington

Open pollinated variety. Medium to large purplish-tinged, tightly-budded spears.
Grows well throughout the midwest/east. One of the older varieties, tried and true.