

ROSE OF SHARON (Hibiscus syriacus)

The Rose of Sharon is a deciduous, upright shrub with multiple trunks. The leaves emerge late in the spring and it flowers July to September. Produces blooms of single and double styles of trumpet shaped flowers ranging in color (white, blue, pink). This shrub does best in full or nearly full sun. It tolerates many soil textures and moisture conditions. Attracts butterflies and humming birds.