

Physocarpus opulifolius

Common Ninebark

Shrub

Physocarpus opulifolius

Identification tips:

- Leaves: 3-lobed; round-toothed; hairless
Fruit: Small, hollow covering over seed
Twig: Older bark papery, appears to be shredded

Common Ninebark

About this shrub:

- Provides good cover for wildlife
- Prefers well drained to moist site; sun to partial shade
- Grows 8 feet tall; 8 feet wide
- Hardiness zone 2